iUniverse, United States, 2007. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Winter Blossoms represents a cross cultural journey that not only explores the experiences of South Asian women, but also reflects all women s connection with everything and everyone around them. From arranged marriages to a mother s delight for her unborn children, Mamata Misra s clear, compassionate voice echoes the bittersweet quality of women s lives. Like her poem Rollercoaster, she takes us on an adventure filled with the complexities of living and dying. I recommend that readers fasten their seat belts. You re in for one amazing ride. -K.J. Wilson, Ed.D, author of When Violence Begins at Home: A Comprehensive Guide to Understanding and Ending Domestic Abuse. Winter Blossoms is a bouquet of poems that would touch every soul. With a voice that is tender and assertive, and clear as a bell, Mamata Misra calls us to interrogate human indignity, hostility, and domination and then she whispers in our ear: change, change, change. She takes us gently by the hand and leads us to hope. Winter Blossoms is courageous and bold, not unlike the buds that dare to bloom in the dead of a freezing season. The truths in Winter Blossoms go beyond the limitations of a particular community and reach the universal. -Shamita Das Dasgupta, co-founder of Manavi, Inc. and editor of A Patchwork Shawl: Chronicles of South Asian Women in America and Body Evidence: Intimate Violence against South Asian Women in America.
